

HOUSEKEEPING SAFETY TRAINING

Name ~~RAMON~~

Date 5/31

Score 10/10

(Please circle the correct answer)

1. T or F Planning for good housekeeping includes planning for vehicular and equipment travel.
2. T or F Following the "Cleaning as you go" principle can prevent injury and fire.
3. T or F It is safe to allow cords and hoses to be run across aisle ways and stairways.
4. T or F Hazardous waste must be stored in approved containers and be disposed of in accordance with local, state, and federal regulations.
5. T or F Elevated working platforms that are not clean can lead to slips, trips, and falls.
6. T or F Storing materials at roof edges presents no danger.
7. T or F Impalement hazards including reinforced steel must be protected with approved covers.
8. T or F Spills should be cleaned up immediately if safe, and help should be requested if needed.
9. T or F Nails on lumber must be removed or safely turned down.
10. T or F There is no hazard in using compressed air to clean up dust.

(All questions and answers were reviewed with attendees)